[compiler]. BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY OF MEDALLISTS BY L. FORRER. INDEX. London, 1987. 8vo, original blue cloth, gilt. viii, 312 pages. New. (600.00)
Comprehensive and indispensable, this enduring work provides valuable information on coin and medal engravers and their work from ancient to modern times. Printed on high acid content paper and bound in half leather that is now often fragile, the original edition is generally usable only with great care. The 1970 Burt Franklin reprint suffers from an incorrectly selected and collated initial volume. This edition, printed on stipple paper and substantially bound, represents one of those infrequent occasions where, in practical terms, a reprint is probably preferable to the original work. Clain-Stefanelli 14115. Grierson 256. With the indispensable subject index to Forrer's work, which is arranged by engraver. Joan Martin's index, published posthumously and the result of ten years of diligent work, adds greatly to the utility of Forrer's magnum opus. Copies are becoming difficult to obtain.

Fine. (300.00)

A well produced reprint, with photographically reproduced plates that, while unable to truly replicate the outstanding originals, are far superior than half-price plates would be. The important volume on the Russian coinages for Georgia, Poland, Prussia and Finland, of Grand Duke Georgii Mikhailovich's monumental work, published over a quarter century in a dozen volumes. Gromachevskii wrote that Монеты Царствования is a "colossal and classic scientific work which has no equal in the Russian or in the entire foreign field of numismatic literature. Especially important for the coverage of monetary history through the inclusion of a vast wealth of hitherto inaccessible documentation. Each volume contains a well-focused summary covering the technical and fiscal aspects of the coinage it deals with, along with succinct, precise descriptions of the coins." The renowned numismatic researcher and collector Georgii Mikhailovich was born in Tiflis in 1863 and was murdered on January 28, 1919 by the Bolsheviks along with three other Russian Grand Dukes. His tragic end was in contrast to a life of privilege. The Grand Duke began collecting coins as a teenager and, being of exceptional means, soon formed an impressive collection. In Описание и изображение некоторых редких монет моего собрания, he first proposed the publication of a corpus of Russian coinage from Peter the Great onwards. A corpus of pre-Petrine coinage had already been proposed by Count Tolstoi a few years earlier. The Grand Duke funded the project and under his direction the various volumes were compiled by Giel, Demmeni and others. Twelve volumes had appeared when the outbreak of war curtailed completion. Though 200 original copies of each volume were printed, the series has suffered heavy attrition over the years. Clain-Stefanelli 11178*. Grierson 193. Gromachevskii 92.

One of the most handsome produced of all eighteenth-century works on numismatics, Johann Karl Hedlinger (1691-1774) was a Swiss medalist known mostly for his historical medals, many of which he executed as medals of the court in Stockholm. Having previously worked as a goldsmith and in the Lucerne, Paris and Stockholm mints, he ended up serving as chief engraver of the Stockholm Mint for much of his career. Chretien de Mehel (von) (1737-1812) was a highly skilled Swiss engraver, being "graveur de S.A.S. Monseigneur l'Electeur Palatin et comte de diverses academies." According to the 1778 title page, the work on Hedlinger medals is one of his finest efforts, and is generally encountered as here, with a 1778-dated text volume married to a 1776-dated plate volume. Forster devotes a dozen pages and several illustrations to Hedlinger, citing de Mehel's work in the bibliography, and terming Hedlinger "one of the foremost Medalists of the eighteenth century." Archiv. Belustigungen page 26. Brunet (179594). Clain Stefanelli 15015. Lipsius 179. Strandberg 115.

Archer's holdings of important auction catalogues and periodicals are also particularly notable.

In the afternoon, we will be offering the outstanding and comprehensive library on ancient numismatics formed by New York coin dealer Herbert Kreindler. This part of the sale will be held in association with Fritz Rudolf Künker GmbH, of Osnabrück, Germany and will be followed, several days later, by an eLive online auction featuring the remainder of the library. New York: Bangs, June 20–24, 1882. 4to, disbound; housed in black folder. 142, (2) pages; 3000 lots. Hand-priced in ink. Supplement to the Good Samaritan shilling text included. Set of 12 reprint plates also included. Some chipping to extremities; still very good or so. (200.00)

One of the landmarks of American numismatic literature. The Bushnell collection was the stuff of fables, being well-known, yet little seen. After Bushnell's death in 1880, a number of prominent dealers attempted to obtain the collection, but it was the Chapman brothers who, to the surprise of many, made off with the prize. The sumptuous catalogue they prepared was heavily criticized, most prominently by Ed. Frossard in Numisma, who gleefully recorded a number of errors the brothers made. Errors aside, the catalogue is a masterpiece, and a fitting homage to the collection. Adams 9 (A+ overall, rated A in large cents, colonials, medals, tokens, patterns, Washingtonia and comments). The set of reprint plates is a welcome addition. Davis 180.

man who devoted his life to study, having never engaged in business and being a most devoted son with an equally appreciative mother, his collecting was a pleasure to him from birth. Born in 1849, he early began collecting coins, which is testified to by notes in his Numismatic diary where he mentions having bought this or that in the early '60s and his interest never ceased. Here therefore, truly is a life work and how well he has mastered it is shown in the coins. Adams A+: "Henry Chapman's magnum opus. Superb coins of the world plus U.S. all series, all expertly described." The most famous of the Chapman sales and one of the most renowned American coin auction ever held. John Story Jenks began collecting coins around 1850 and was 82 years of age when his collection was sold. Chapman claimed that "He is probably the oldest collector in the United States, and nearly every important sale has contributed to his collection." Twenty years his junior, Henry Chapman was still at the height of his considerable powers: "Suffice it to say I have not spared my faculties, energy or money to give in this catalogue full descriptions of the coins contained in this grand collection." For years the Jenks catalogue served as the best American single reference guide to the entire range of numismatics. Of great importance for the fine array of ancient Greek and Roman coins alone, also featured was an incredible selection of medieval and modern European rarities, and an especially important and extensive series of British coins. The American coins, from colonials to pioneer gold, were also of prime importance. A set of reprint plates accompanies this copy. Adams 40. Clain-Stefanelli 7997*. Davis 210. Grierson 276. J. Francis Fisher's 1837 Description of American Medals

459 Fisher, J. Francis. DESCRIPTION OF AMERICAN MEDALS. Collections of the Massachusetts Historical Society. Third Series, Vol. VI. Boston: American Stationers' Company, 1837. 8vo, later blue cloth, gilt. (4). 300 pages. [Fisher's article comprises pages 286 to 293.] Old library stamp; some light discoloration to extremities. Near fine. (2250.00)

One of the landmarks of early U.S. numismatic literature, Joshua Francis Fisher's work is only the second article published in the United States discussing coins or medals from the point of view of a numismatist. While a number of publications predate this and James Mease's 1821 "Description of Some of the Medals Struck in Relation to Important Events in North America" (generally regarded as the first truly numismatic article published in this country), those early publications were written for merchants, bankers, lawyers, politicians and other people who dealt with monetary issues on a daily basis. Works had not been written from the point of view of one who studies coins and medals. Both Fisher's and Mease's articles are extremely rare. The article itself is far from being a rehashing of Mease's previous work: in fact, they list only one medal in common: the "Washington before Boston" medal of the Comitia Americana series. Fisher describes 14 Washington medals, 5 Franklin medals, one each depicting Jefferson and Benjamin Rush, 3 medals of the Revolution and 14 earlier colonial medals including the very rare Lord and Lady Baltimore medal. Fisher's article is more concerned with colonial-era medals than Mease's, which mostly describes the Comitia Americana series and related medals. Attinelli 111.

The Second 1934 ANA Convention Sale

458 Fisher, Chas. H. AUCTION SALE OF RARE COINS AND PAPER MONEY. Cleveland: Charles Mitzman, Ohio Licensed Auctioneer, Aug. 23, 1934. 8vo, original printed card covers. (2). 38 pages; 1005 lots. Spine weak; very good or better. (100.00)

Gengerke page 207: "A.N.A. Convention." Although the American Numismatic Association considered the August 21 auction conducted by Charles Molnar to be the main auction, Fisher's sale was a welcome addition, held at the convention hotel on the final day. Fisher notes in the catalogue that "This sale will be held in connection with the A.N.A. Convention on Thursday, August 23rd, at 1:30 P.M. at the Carter Hotel, Cleveland, Ohio." Further, the October, 1934 Convention issue of The Numismatist reported that "Those who were not used to metropolitan auction sales had grand opportunities, for the Cleveland convention had not only one auction but an abundance of them, the official one on Monday night attended by a large audience, and Charlie Fisher's sale on Thursday afternoon at the conclusion of the convention. The prices were fair and quite satisfactory to the buyers." Fisher's sale featured several runs of large cents, including a "Very Fine" 1799 ex Dr. French, and "A Superb Lot" of half dollars, comprising lots 819-852, "consigned by one of the most fastidious collectors, who is a real crank on Condition." Very scarce.

472 Hanson, Harvey L. FOUR LETTERS TO ROBERT H. LLOYD. 1) Holograph, dated 11/14/37. Single sheet, written on both sides. 27 by 18 cm. 2) Holograph, dated 11/26/37. Single sheet, written on both sides. 27 by 18 cm. 3) Holograph on Pacific Coast Numismatic Society stationery, dated 3/20/38. Single sheet, 28 by 21 cm. 4) Typewritten letter, signed, on Santa Clara County Cattleman's Association stationery, dated October 14, 1943. Single sheet, 28 by 22 cm. Generally near fine. (60.00)
Four interesting letters on various personal and numismatic topics, American Numismatic Association politics prominent among them. In the first he writes of ANA: "Some day I hope they will stop their squabbling and make the convention a place where one can get real numismatic information & instruction. Get some active members on the Board of Governors & it shouldn't be necessary to spend 5 days arguing." In the second letter he continues: "Yes, I would like to have a talk with you too on this A.N.A. business. There should be room for more younger men (& women too) in the guidance of affairs. By younger I mean under 80 & somewhere between 40 & 50 ... much excellent & honest work has been done, but perhaps grandpa should have a rest..." In the third letter Hansen contemplates running for "Secretary of the ANA." Also included is an April 3, 1965 letter to "Bob" (presumably R.H. Lloyd) from Harley L. Freeman, wherein he laments: "Every time I pick up the Numismatist ... I want to puke. Mis-strucks, dots on Lincoln's nose, bags and rolls... Yea Gods, what is happening to our hobby? ... I still like to talk to the old timers ... some of those old memories and former conventions with the Chapmans, Mehl, McAllister (sic), Sears, Wormser, Henderson and others were really something to remember."

476 Harzfeld, S.K. CATALOGUE OF COINS AND MEDALS, AMERICAN AND FOREIGN, ANCIENT AND MODERN.... New York, Oct. 29, 1880. 8vo, original printed wraps. 28 pages; 711 lots. Hand-priced in pencil. Near fine. (40.00)

477 Haseltine, John W. AUCTION CATALOGUES. Six numismatic auction catalogues: Dec. 18, 1872; Nov. 6-8, 1882; Mar. 1-2, 1883; Sept. 19-20, 1883; Jan. 19-22, 1885; and Jan. 30-31, 1885. 8vo, original printed wraps. Generally very good. (120.00)

Adams A. "Washington (Lyonel) Medal in gold. 1¢ shilling. 1823 and 1827 25¢." Haseltine and Attinelli for whatever reasons, are characteristically silent about this important collection and the collector who formed it.

479 Haseltine, John W. CATALOGUE OF A COLLECTION OF UNITED STATES AND FOREIGN COPPER AND SILVER COINS... New York, Mar. 1-2, 1883. 8vo, original printed wraps. 26, (2) pages, 963 lots. Original printed prices realized list laid in. Fine. [with] ADDENDA TO JOHN W. HASELTINE'S SIXTY-FIFTH SALE. (New York), March 1-2, 1883. 8vo, self-covered. 4 pages; 70 lots. Near fine. (75.00)

The catalogue itself is relatively common; the addenda is considerably scarcer; the original printed PRL is also quite scarce. Having all three together is a rarity. The opening of the addenda reads: "The attention of Collectors is especially directed to the following pieces, many of which are exceedingly rare and some have never before been offered at either Public or Private Sale. I have never seen duplicates of the following seven Twenty Cent Pieces and there are such extreme rarity that the Cabinet of United States Mint does not contain them." Other entries in the addenda include additional patterns, historical medals and a silver Confederate cent.

480 Heinz, Bernard. NATHANIEL JOCELYN: PURITAN, PAINTER, INVENTOR. New Haven Colony Historical Society, undated (1983?). 8vo, later brown cloth, gilt; original printed card covers bound in; binder's leaves added for bulk. 44 pages; illustrated. Fine. (40.00)

Photographs of the Helfenstein Cents

481 [Helfenstein, Louis]. PHOTOGRAPHS OF 100 VARIETIES OF U.S. LARGE CENTS FROM THE COLLECTION OF LOUIS HELFENSTEIN. Unknown photographer. Ten 8 by 10 inch black and white negatives, accompanied by ten matching black and white contact proof sheets, depicting 100 varieties of United States large cents from the Louis Helfenstein collection, sold by Lester Merkin on Aug. 14, 1964. Fine. (250.00)

From the archives of Jack Collins. The photos depict lots 1-25 (obverses only), 26-50 (both sides), selections from lots 51-101 (both sides), and selections from lots 106-132 (both sides). Three of the negatives and sheets are different exposures of the same coins. It is unclear who took these photographs or when they were produced. Maurice Bauman shot the famous full color cover of the sale. As no copies of the catalogue include actual photographic plates, these are of considerable interest to anyone not satisfied with the catalogue's illustrations. Important coins from a very high quality collection.

482 Henderson, J.M. AMERICAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION CONVENTION OF 1938. OFFICIAL PROGRAM AND AUCTION. Columbus, Aug. 16, 1938.

8vo, original printed card covers. (32) pages; 510 lots. Very good. (50.00)

483 Hewitt, Lee F. [publisher]. THE NUMISMATIC SCRAPBOOK MAGAZINE. Vols. 1-3 (1935-37), complete for the period covered. Chicago. 24mo and 12mo, as issued, all in original card or paper covers. All are three- or five-hole punched for inclusion in binders. Very good or so. (100.00)

The scarce first three volumes of this important and underappreciated publication. While the hole-punching on these copies is unfortunate, the early issues have long been difficult to obtain and are quite desirable.

484 Hill, Roy. PHOTOGRAPH & MEMORABILIA. 1) Snapshot of Hill in a suit, standing alongside a large plaque marking the "Site of First U.S. Branch Mint." Hill's name and address ink stamp on back, also ink stamped Oct. 31, 1949. 9 by 9 cm. 2) Two conjugate postcards announcing "M" Day at the San Francisco Mint on November 25, 1949. Illustration of the mint building at top. Size when folded 8 by 14 cm. 3) San Jose Coin Club advertising card. 8 by 13 cm. 4) Peninsula Coin Club advertising card. 6 by 10 cm. 5) East Bay Coin Club advertising card. 6 by 10 cm. Five items, generally fine. (35.00)

The photograph was taken ten days after the dedication of the bronze tablet it depicts, which had just been placed there by the California Centennial Commission with the Cooperation of the Society of California Pioneers. "M" day on November 25, 1949 was designed "for all the Junior Coin Collectors of the Bay Area Under Leadership of Roy Hill, Counselor." It is apparently a trial version, printed on one side only, the other side with Hill's address stamp and design elements in ink to be added on the return postcard. Roy Hill was President of the San Jose Coin Club at the time. He was quite active in organized Northern California numismatics and formed an excellent numismatic library, marking most volumes with his name stamp on the bottom page edges. The story goes that shortly after his death his numerous books and other publications were sold en bloc to a bookstore in the area for $100. Your cataloguer recalls buying "Roy Hill" books all over the state for a number of years after.

(100.00) In the June 13–15, 1967 New Netherlands sale catalogue, John J. Ford, Jr. wrote of this work: "This text is probably best known for its illustrations of the U.S. Treasury Notes of 1842, 1843 and 1847. It is of inestimable value to those interested in the paper currency of the United States issued prior to the Civil War period, such as the interest bearing notes 1812–15, 1837–47 and 1857, 1860. No other book, to our knowledge, gives as readable an account of the history behind our paper money through the tumultuous (and often confusing) Civil War period." Clain-Stefanelli 13493. Letters on a Proposed Design of the Washington Quarter

501 [Leach, Louis L.] TWO LETTERS ON LEACH'S PROPOSED DESIGN FOR THE WASHINGTON QUARTER. Washington, 1931. Two letters on Treasury Department letterhead typed in blue ink and signed. First by Mint Director Robert J. Grant, addressed to Leach and dated Oct. 12, 1931. Second by Acting Mint Director Mary M. O'Reilly, addressed to Leach and dated Nov. 12, 1931. Color of type implies that these are carbon-copies of some sort, though they are on printed letterhead thicker than normal copy paper and the second one at least is signed (the first may be an impression of an original signature). Both folded, and a bit worn at extremities. Very good. (200.00)

Most interesting materials concerning Leach's proposed design for the Washington quarter. Grant's letter is essentially a form letter simply indicating the receipt of Leach's design. The letter by O'Reilly is much more substantial, informing Leach that his design is one of five chosen as a finalist from a field of over forty proposed designs. The letter suggests that Leach make various revisions to his proposed design for further consideration: "The face of Washington is somewhat weak in modeling, especially as regards the mouth and chin, and is a little small perhaps in proportion to the word 'Liberty' around the rim. The general composition of the obverse seems scattered and is weakened by the gap caused by the position of the wings of the eagle. The eagle, itself, is lacking in spirit, which could be obviated, perhaps, if the head were in a raised position of the eagle were in flight or some other vigorous attitude."

Ex "Library of H.E. Deats" with circular ink stamp, dated April 10, 1902. How little have political talking points changed in eleven decades: "The old struggle was by the people against the king, to avoid the payment of arbitrary taxes imposed without the people's consent. The new struggle is that of boundless wealth, corporate or otherwise, against the representatives of the people, to avoid the payment of the taxes which the people have a right to impose for the public weal."

Mehl's Numismatic Monthly, Complete

516 Mehl, B. Max [publisher]. MEHL'S NUMISMATIC MONTHLY, Vols. I-X (1910-19). Fort Worth: B. Max Mehl. Ten volumes, complete. 8vo, original printed card covers; Vol. IV neatly bound in brown cloth, gilt. 1756 pages; numerous half-tone text illustrations of coins; portraits of famous American and Canadian numismatists, etc. Some duplicates included. Occasional signs of wear, overall very good to fine. (1500.00)

An underrated source of information, Mehl's Numismatic Monthly is especially rich with word sketches of turn of the century American numismatists, often accompanied by individual or group photographs. Also featured are short monographs on many unusual numismatic topics, including a wealth of data on Canadian numismatics. Of Mehl and his Monthly, John Adams wrote: "The career of B. Max Mehl was an impossibility. He had at least three strikes against him: 1) he was an immigrant Jew in a then-gentile hobby; 2) he was located in Fort Worth, Texas, at a time when 95 percent of the business was done on the East Coast; and 3) Lilliputian in stature and colorless in terms of personality; he adopted a business plan that relied on creativity and promotion. Quite obviously, Mehl did not realize that he was licked before he started. He just knew that it was a lot more fun to sell coins than to sell shoes. From there, he took it one step at a time... in the formative years, what probably made the difference was Mehl's Numismatic Monthly. Launched in January of 1908, the early volumes of the Monthly are easily the equal of The Numismatist, boasting original articles by such gifted writers as R.W. McLachlan, Edgar Adams, Howard Wood, George Blake, Dr. Eugene Courteau, J.W. Haseltine and Frank Stewart."

Fine. (150.00)
The Pennypacker sale was a remarkable event, offering a fine collection of large cents assembled in the late 1940s and 1950s, mostly acquired from Leonard Holland's good friend Thomas Elder. Holland pledged the collection as collateral for a construction project loan in the late 1950s. He encountered unforeseen difficulties and the bank foreclosed the loan, choosing an obscure country auctioneer to liquidate the collection. Distribution of the catalogue was limited and the coins generally sold for low prices. Some of the important collectors of the day did not learn of the sale and several of the attendees funneled their bids through a single agent. After the sale, it is reported that the coins were again auctioned within the group in a hotel room. Sometimes, the differences were dramatic, with coins subsequently bringing double or triple the original hammer price. Important.

The Year without Cents

613 [United States Government]. MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, TRANSMITTING THE REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE MINT, ON THE OPERATIONS OF THAT ESTABLISHMENT DURING THE LAST YEAR. Washington: Printed by William A. Davis. Jan. 9, 1816. 8vo, self-covered. 8 pages. Disbound, a bit browned; very good. (175.00)

The 1815 Mint Report, as transmitted by President James Madison and written by Mint Director Robert Patterson. 1815 is significant for being the only year that the U.S. Mint has not coined cents. Patterson addresses this, and the low overall output for 1815, writing, "The high price of gold and silver bullion, for some time past, in the current paper money of the country, has prevented, and, as long as this shall continue to be the case, must necessarily prevent, deposits of these metals being made for coinage, to any considerable amount. But a fresh supply of copper having lately been received at the mint, we have again resumed the coinage of cents." Also included in the report are two tables submitted by James Rush, Mint Treasurer, giving the exact 1815 production figures and providing an abstract of Mint expenditures for the year. Very scarce. Shaw and Shoemaker 39566.

614 [United States Government]. GOLD AND SILVER COINS... REPORT: THE SELECT COMMITTEE ON COINS... House of Representatives. 23d Congress, 1st Session, Rep. No. 278, Feb. 19, 1834. 8vo, later plain wraps. 116 pages. Minor browning; very good or better. (150.00)
The final version of the bill which led, thanks to a last-minute maneuver, to the legislation of the 16:1 coinage ratio, rejecting bi-metalism and establishing the gold standard. The Committee, spearheaded by Campbell P. White, expressed "dissatisfaction in regard to the circulating medium" and attributed it to "a radical defect in our circulation, to the exclusive use of paper." The Committee desired "To raise the relative value of gold so as to approximate its estimate in general commerce, and preserve silver as the practical standard; To authorize the assay and stamping of domestic gold in ingots at the lowest charge; To regulate the value of such foreign gold and silver coins as circulate freely in foreign trade, so as to facilitate commercial transactions without interfering with the public convenience; To issue a subsidiary currency of gold and silver coins, restricted to effect small payments, and depreciated by such seigniorage as will protect them from being melted or exported. They desire also, to regulate the mint so that it will defray its own expenses, and save the public revenue from a heavy annual charge. It is also contemplated to simplify the proportion of alloy in all coins to reject minute fractions, and to facilitate computation. The committee beg leave, in furtherance of these views, to submit the accompanying bill."

615 [United States Government]. MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, TRANSMITTING THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE MINT AT PHILADELPHIA, AND THE BRANCH MINTS, FOR THE YEAR 1846. (Washington), Feb. 8, 1847. 29th Congress, 2d Session. Doc. No. 75. Ho. of Reps. Executive. 8vo, self-covered. 7, (1) pages, last blank. Removed from previous binding. Near fine. (100.00)

A very scarce antebellum Mint Report, transmitted to Congress via President Polk from Mint Director R.M. Patterson. Provides detailed information on the coinages of the Philadelphia, Charlotte, New Orleans and Dahlonega Mints. Especially interesting for information on the southern mints. "The rebuilding of the branch mint at Charlotte has been completed, and the new machinery made and set up, at a cost short of the estimates presented."

Another scarce antebellum Mint Report, transmitted to Congress via President Pierce from Mint Director James Ross Snowden. This is a rather substantive report, with Snowden reporting on a number of interesting subjects, including the new $3 gold piece, the effects of the reduced silver content in circulating coin and the opening of the San Francisco Mint and the Assay Office in New York. Looking toward the future, Snowden writes, "A change in the copper coinage seems desirable, with a view to the substitution of a lighter and more convenient coins for the cumbersome cent now used."

Postcard Noting Correct Date of Woodward's 92nd Sale, a Legendary Rarity

630 [Woodward, W. Elliot]. POSTCARD TO S.H. AND H. CHAPMAN CLARIFYING DATE OF WOODWARD'S 92ND SALE. Printed postcard, 13 by 7.5 cm, addressed to Messrs. S.H. & H. Chapman, sent by W. Elliot Woodward and postmarked Dec. 10, 1886, regarding the correct sale date of Woodward's 92nd sale. Fine. (50.00)
Woodward's 92nd sale, of archaeological material mostly relating to American Indians, was to be held on Dec. 28–29, 1886, but, due to a printing error, the date given in the catalogue is Dec. 21–22. This postcard clarifies the correct date. Sale 92 is a celebrated rarity of the Woodward series, with John W. Adams stating in his United States Numismatic Literature (Vol. 1) that "by far the rarest are sales 1 and 92." While this may be overstating the case, it is truly a very scarce sale and one that has been long acknowledged as a key catalogue in the Woodward series.
